You're Invited!

Join Christopher Lehman as he leads a free, 4-session, adult poetry workshop for educators.

Whether rejuvenating from the test-prep doldrums or looking for a way to work on your own adult writing - we are looking forward to you joining in the fun.

Who Should Join?

Educators and authors involved in K-12+ education interested in writing and talking about your own poetry.

Be ready to write poems, share them openly with others, revise with feedback, and share your passions and talents with fellow educators.

Our Focus

We will not be focusing on the teaching of poetry to students, per se.

Instead, our focus will be on fostering our own adult writing lives through weekly writing exercises, sharing of our work, and the hallmark of our sessions—interactive feedback conversations called “workshops.”

These sessions are designed to keep us actively writing, exploring, reflecting, and above all inspired.

When?

We will work together on four Saturdays:

11:00AM-Noon EST

- April 12
- April 19
- April 26
- May 3

Our poems of the week will be posted several days in advance. Subscribe to ChristopherLehman.com to receive these updates by email.

Should I Register for the Live Group or Just Watch the Streaming Video?

Google has strict limits on the number of live participants in a Hangout, however anyone can watch the Hangouts On Air live stream.

The Live Group

- You will appear on internet-streamed video and audio, collaborating with Chris and other participants live (from the comfort of your own home, of course)! Share your personality, ideas, and inspiration.
- Poems for on-air feedback will come from this group each week.
- Because space is limited, please only register if you can attend all four sessions.
- You must set-up a Google+ account and have the ability to stream video and audio from your computer or device prior to registering.
- You must also be able to reliably stream audio and video from your computer or device.
- To join the Live Group, you must register on ChristopherLehman.com. Registration goes live on Wednesday, April 2 at 10AM EST. First come basis.

The Streaming Video

- Details on the live stream will be posted on ChristopherLehman.com prior to the first session.
- Live tweet using #TeacherPoets
